Dear Sisters, Associates, and Staff,

The Sisters of St. Joseph Health and Wellness Foundation (SSJHWF) is pleased to welcome Beth Collins as the new Executive Director. She will succeed Sr. Helen Skormisley, the present Executive Director, who has served in that position since the Foundation was created in 2001. The Board of Directors is grateful to Sr. Helen for her eighteen years of dedicated service.

As we look to the future, the Foundation Board and staff are very happy that Beth will be a part of the SSJHWF team providing creative, visionary leadership as we continue to serve the people of West Virginia. She has a strong sense of the charism and mission of the Congregation of St. Joseph and has professional experience working most recently as the Northern Region Director for Catholic Charities WV and the Director of the Clifford M. Lewis, SJ Appalachian Institute, Wheeling Jesuit University. She will begin her work as Executive Director on October 1, 2019, and her office will be located in the CSJ Wheeling Center. When you see her, please extend a warm welcome.

Sincerely,

Sr. Rose Ann
